

My Apartment

My apartment is special to me because it is where I live. I chose this place because it gives me a lot of memories from when I was a little kid. I think the biggest reason why I chose this place is because it is really important to me, I have done so many things here.

